We are now on part #6 of the No Cost Product Launch. For this part, we are going to go over how to set up your free autoresponder. Keep in mind, this part is not required. Just like the e-cover, it is highly recommended. This is going to be how you can create a buyer's list. Everyone that buys from you during the launch can get onto your email list. Then you can promote relevant affiliate offers for affiliate products that relate to the niche for the product you have created.

You want to capture your buyer's email for a more sustainable business. This is the completely free way to do it without purchasing an autoresponder. Now, we do recommend investing in an autoresponder down the line. Sites like Aweber and Get Response actually integrate seamlessly with JV Zoo.

As soon as someone buys your product, they are added to your email list. With the free autoresponder services, you don't have that luxury. You can with the information we present to you in the following lesson. You will see how you can capture your buyer's emails onto that list.

It will help to reduce support requests too because you will be automatically sending people to the location where they can obtain that content. It will also allow you to make much more from your buyer's over time. You can follow up with relevant offers you promote to them for commissions.

The best free autoresponder is found at www.listwire.com.

Something to share

"List Wire works great if you have something to share with other people. List Wire can also be shared with other people, and I give away free accounts on a daily basis to other Internet Marketers.

Having your own autoresponder is essential and it's better to start with the best free autoresponder available (List Wire), than to pay $29.00 monthly while you learn how to use your autoresponder.

I'm very satisfied with List Wire and I am sure you will be too. Have Fun! :)"
